Marcel and Elizabeth Bergman (Bergmann Piano Duo) have performed in recital, in orchestral concerts and at music festivals, internationally for over two decades. Recipients of many international awards, both devote time to other aspects of the music industry. Teaching credits include Mount Royal University, Calgary and University of Calgary, and The Banff Centre for the Arts. They have recorded several CDs. The duo's love for music covers a wide range, from Baroque to Contemporary, including many of their own arrangements and compositions.

Rod Thomas Squance has dazzled audiences across Canada and worldwide. He has received rave reviews for his exciting technique and captivating musicianship. He performs internationally as a soloist and as a freelance percussionist in a variety of settings, including chamber and orchestral and performs for CBC Radio often, on national radio and television broadcasts. Rod teaches at The University of Calgary (ethnomusicology and percussion) and has served on the faculty of The Banff Centre for the Arts.
